QR Code Link to This Post Investor and financial crimes researcher Charles Ortel joins me to uncover what he is calling "the "largest unprosecuted charity fraud ever attempted." Charles reports that the Clinton Foundation is part of an "international charity fraud network whose entire cumulative scale approaches and may even exceed $100 billion, measured from 1997 forward." And the most shocking aspect of the Clinton Foundation's missing Billions is that much of it was stolen from those who need it most, the world's poorest of the poor. Along with the Bush crime family, the Clintons formed The Clinton-Bush Haiti Fund after the devastating 2010 Haiti earthquake. Charles says, "What the Clintons have done, is they are stealing the people's physical gold in Haiti, as well as perhaps stealing or diverting massive sums that were sent towards Haiti and refusing to make an accounting for it."

This is a story of fraud and corruption so vast in scope that it should result in putting the Clintons in prison, not back in the White House.
