QR Code Link to This Post Print media still has some life in it. At least for a niche magazines aimed at specific audiences. Magazines can be a great business tool. For instance if you owned a butcher shop you had a local magazine about a meat which could be a driver of new customers. Or a real estate agency, a dentist office or literally whatever. Or if you simply want to do a magazine on a topic you like; music, movies, pets, food, psychology, whatever. It's up to you. It's a way to get into publishing that is less work intensive as we produce the magazine for you. You're just responsible for getting your own ads and paying the printer. Contact for.
