Driving a Philly to Orlando trip an can pick you up anywhere in the greater Bucks/Philadelphia area or the 95 corridor an drop you off along same, or all the way into Orlando, or towns/states along the way.

NE Philly suburbs to Orlando.. and pretty much straight through. Need to be in Orlando by Friday afternoon Dec 29th. Usual stops for gas, quick meal or snack, and one 3 or 4-hour rest break. Have done this rideshare thing before with great results, to and from Philly - Orlando an Orlando to Philly.

Large full-size Lincoln sedan with room for your bags. Will have some snacks, soda an ice tea in a cooler and plenty of coffee. You're welcome to some or "bring whatever you like". I'm fine with snacking in the car.

Even split of gas an tolls, 50/50. If two people, split in thirds. Pick up or drop off in towns along the way also okay. Along the way is the 95 corridor not 200 miles off 95, unless I can map another (effective an timely) route directly into Philadelphia.. "which I have done before, but you pay for the gas".

Easy going.. and any type of music is okay. (Smoking okay... I do). NO DRUGS , screaming baby's or anything shady. When you email, please let me know where you want to be "picked up and dropped off" so I can map it. It will help in the planning! We MUST swap telephone numbers and chat before leaving. an if your close enough, we can meet too!

If you want your friendly pet moved.. perfect! I've done that before also. If just cargo, it must be unsealed when I arrive. Than you seal it, and I don't touch it till I hand it over to wherever its going. I will NOT risk carrying anything.
