The Biedermeier style:
Central Europe (ca. 1815 - 1859)
"Biedermeier furniture, a style that reigned in Germany and Austria from about 1815 to about 1850, has attracted a loyal following in this country in recent seasons."
(NYTimes 1981)

"Ebonized trims are common on Biedermeier cabinetry, and neoclassical elements -- lyreshaped chair splats, carved scrollwork, table supports shaped like Greek columns. But the strongest aesthetic statement came from the wood -- richly-grained, honey-colored, often book-matched veneers of walnut and fruitwood."
