People seem very much critical of Trump.....every minute of the day. Sure, I dont agree, or necessarily like everything he does.....but that would be very much true on any president, would it not?

Hmmmmmm. I need others.....sure, nothing terribly profound

We have friends, colleagues, family, golfing buddies and band mates. Sure, we depend on each other at times for various needs. For the most part, it is very reciprocal in nature.....otherwise it would break down eventually.

Once we get out of this "local" environment however.....it does change. When it comes to government, their confiscation of one's income, wealth.....there doesnt seem to be much in the way of return. Plus the constant clamoring of MORE MORE MORE in taxes from people and a certain party has grown beyond stale at this point. Coupled with the notion that federal government isnt a good steward with our funds.

You can sit here and tell me that you are happy with the current situation? Perhaps you are just in a phase of life where you are not paying much in the way of taxes? 50% of this country pays NOTHING. Zero dollars in federal income tax.

So, no....I dont really need, nor want to support a country in this fashion.

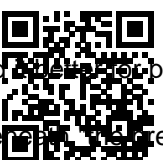

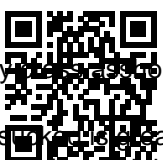

Most of this country is "crass" would be my thinking..... perhaps you are an exception to this, but you would be in the minority Im afraid. Again, why a lot of this isnt sticking for Trump

seen the White House? He seems like a pretty decent guy to me. He's not a public person with.....but he's not really didn't want to be a White.

Clinton, while making a dick sucking episode and generally I was fine with his presidency.....I dont feel he was a great as everyone makes him out to be. Hell, anyone would have avoid a dick sucking episode and generally I was fine with his presidency.....I dont feel he was a great as everyone makes him out to be. Hell, anyone would have seemed great after the recent GW.

I would subscribe to the following....for my entire adult life, which the journey began in the early 90's.....I have witnessed one bad presidency after another.....Obama being a bit of the exception perhaps.....but not an of the PPACA, his signature piece of legislation, so that knocks him down a bit.
