QR Code Link to This Post I am inviting people to join me on my trip to Colombia, South America. I already bought the plane ticket for 12/7/2017. I have lived there for several years and can serve as a tour guide. I have friends and relatives there. Some people in the group might become interested in doing tourism, charity work, help people, teach classes such as English, learn Spanish, look at cities for retirement, have fun, meet people, make new friends, seek investment opportunities,.
