With a rotating cast of musicians performing a 16-song set of classic tracks from iconic bands and artists, these exclusive events connect everyday players and live music fans in cities across the country. Whether an event is happening in your hometown or you're planning a visit to a new city, we welcome your participation.

Festival of Friends Events are made up of pre-organized performance collectives†showcasing material by iconic bands and artists. Music is performed by a rotating cast of musicians (exact number is dependent upon instrumentation needs) who've registered in advance for the pre-determined material they want to perform onâ€. There are no auditions and no rehearsals. You simply sign up, learn your parts, and play in the show. It's a great time for musicians and audiences alike.

So whether you're a seasoned musician simply looking for a fun and low-key reprieve from your current musical pursuits or you're someone who has been playing alone at home and wants to connect, play and perform with new players, Festival of Friends Events offer something musical and social for everyone. There's really no better way to explore different styles of music and challenge yourself in new ways (and you get to perform) than a Festival of Friends participatory performance event.

Our upcoming event theme will showcase classic material by the heavy hitters of the Seattle grunge scene from the late 80s through the mid-90s including Soundgarden, Alice In Chains, Pearl Jam and Nirvana; providing participants a diverse range of material†to choose from while offering audiences an eclectic showcase of local music history.
