QR Code Link to This Post Realty TV company currently searching all across the south for attractive females that aspire to be fitness, swimwear, bikini models.

Do you have a naturally slim shape that looks good in a bikini? This could be your opportunity to work with a professional production company on the pilot episode of a reality TV show about fun loving girls that want to be swimwear models.

Interviews, auditions and pre-production taping planned for Indy, Nashville, Dallas, Greenville and Charlotte in January and February. Today is the time to get more information for this rare opportunity.

This is NOT a school and doesn't cost you a penny! This gig pays $1000 to each girl we select to be in the pilot episode production. No experience is required, so if you are bikini shape, with an attractive face, and a bit of a fun streak, we want to hear from you. All races welcome!

It never hurts to check it out so hit us up now!
