QR Code Link to This Post I'm looking for a very knowledgeable sewer (hobbyist or pro) to give me private sewing lessons at home. I'd like to learn all the basics and a few specific things, like how to make shelf-bra inserts. Ideally we could meet over the course of a few Sundays, a few hours each time. $15/hour. The machines I have here are Singers from the 70s, I believe.

Also looking for a pro who can service my machines (3). They are dusty and need cleaning and oiling, and likely adjusting. I know stores do it, but I don't want to have to take them anywhere, so I'm looking for someone who can service them.
