QR Code Link to This Post Hi- I'm looking for someone to lend a hand with some light interior painting and wall prep.

I have a couple rooms (bathroom and a small hallway) that I took down the popcorn ceiling in and am now ready for the final steps. I have all the materials you need - I just need the labor. I'm running out of time before my goal of being done before Christmas, so I'm tapping out and will let someone else finish it up.

Let me know your availability and how much you charge per hour. I work from home most days so you could show up during the day or on the weekend. My house is in a nice neighborhood, so you don't have to worry about getting your car stolen. (apparently that's an issue for some people?!)

I'm a non-smoker and simply ask that if you must smoke, you do it outside.

Thanks!
