QR Code Link to This Post Hey! I just moved back to the Minneapolis area, and I'm looking for an R&B/soul or jazz band to join. I was a background singer before I left, but my old band is no longer together, so I'm a free agent. I sing everything, but those genres are my sweet spots. Honestly, I like being behind the scenes doing background vocals (20 Feet from Stardom, anyone?), but I'll participate in shared lead work. I am excellent at blending my vocals/harmonizing. I am professional and ready to work. I will also do hooks on rap and hip-hop songs, so rap artists, please feel free to reach out. Please, SERIOUS REPLIES ONLY. I'm tired of meeting people who seem to have ISSUES and are wasting my!
