It is very bright and sunny, even in the winter. It is fully furnished (except for your room), with a vintage feel and lots of space, simplicity and healthy plants. The apartment has high ceilings, decorative fireplace, two sun rooms, hardwood floors, built-in bookshelves, large separate living and dining rooms, large closets, kitchen pantry, back deck, and cute backyard with a food garden and space for summer BBQ.

And, it's very quiet--no foot steps overhead, no street noise. The kitchen is stocked with everything you need to cook, juice, blend, food process, etc. I'm looking for someone like me: Quiet, easy-going, respectful, and clean. I work hard and try to keep the home environment relaxed. The home is great for this with its bright natural light and hardwood floors. My most recent room mate was a newly-arrived Hopkins professor who just purchased a home. If you have your own cooking gear, there is room for that too. The apartment is in a great-looking six flat on a quiet tree-lined street right in the heart of Kaimuki.

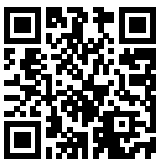

This is a rare find, in one of the best neighborhoods in hawaii-- close to the lake, and only a half block from Clark Street's charming restaurants, cafes, night-life, gyms, yoga studios, art galleries, and boutiques. Jewel, Walgreen's, and a fresh produce grocery store right around the corner, and a fantastic weekly neighborhood Farmer's Market. Kaimuki is a highly walkable neighborhood, and the apartment is only a block from the Clark/Catalpa bus stop, and 10-15 minute walk to the Berwyn or Bryn Mawr Red Line stations, and express bus to Michigan Avenue.
