QR Code Link to This Post My name is Mallory Blanchard. I am a 20-year-old aspiring singer/songwriter/rapper, and I wish to begin producing some of my music here in the near future and would like to find a partner with at least a little technical experience or hookups to help and/or collab.

My style ranges from gospel to contemporary to rock to country-ish to electronic vibes (really whatever I feel in writing the song), but I've never put my lyrics on a track before and would absolutely love to start working on creative ideas. If you sing, we can sing together - heck yeah! If you rap, we can collaborate that. If you work with sound equipment/music software, that's totally rad!

A little about me: I am homeless, and have been for the most part of the past year or so, but my boyfriend and I are now temporarily staying with a friend. I plan on starting college soon; I want to become a teacher to college students in the future.

My ultimate dream, however, is to pursue the calling of spreading love and compassion to whomever my voice will reach. It would be great to meet someone and see if we can take a little step together!

Feel free to email, text, or call. I look forward to inspiring!
