QR Code Link to This Post Hi,

I am an experienced, certified, English (ESL) instructor ready to help you improve your English.

We can work on your specific needs. For example we can focus on speaking, writing, test preparation or anything else you need help in.

For example, improve your speaking through discussions, role plays, and debates which will give you the opportunity to speak as much as possible and improve your fluency and confidence.

We could also improve your English in real settings by visiting interesting cultural or entertainment places that make learning a fun, enjoyable, and practical experience while exploring Boston and American culture.

Lessons are dynamic and hours and can be arranged to fit your needs. We could meet in a local cafe or library or at your home. Phone and on-line lessons are also possible as well as group lessons.

Please let me know if you have any questions and try out your first lesson free!

I hope to hear from you soon.

Cheers,
