Imagine losing the only home you've known. This is what happened to Cheech, His human family could no longer take proper care of him so he came into rescue.

Cheech had a human dad that he Adored! Though he appreciates the love and care his foster mom gives him , he prefers to give his affection to his foster dad. His foster dad pets him and plays with his favorite string toy. He will even fetch! Cheech will plop himself in the laps of male visitors or sit on their belongings, as if to say: are you my new dad?

In his previous home Cheech was the only pet. Along with his human dad there was a child\children in his home. Cheech needs to be on a feeding schedule as he needs to lose a few pounds.

He has made it crystal clear. He wants a family with a human dad who can spend a lot of time with him!

Are you the Cat Daddy who will bring the joy back to Cheech's life? He is available for adoption with St. Louis Pet Rescue.
