QR Code Link to This Post I am rehoming my 17 month old female doberman/lab. She recently was given back to me by my ex who could not keep her at his apartment. She needs a home with a backyard because she is used to having her run and does not walk cooperatively on a leash. She is house trained. She is up to date on shots but not spayed. She is great with children and was raised with mine 11, 5, 4 and she is very protective with them. She is good with small, female dogs but not male dogs. She is not great with cats either, I have 2 and all she does is chase them. She thinks she is a lap dog and very energetic. I am asking a rehoming fee of $200 to ensure she goes to a home where she will be taken care of. She will come with her bed, food, toys, and.
