QR Code Link to This Post We have a number of small quick projects around our office and need someone that's handy. Light electrical knowledge required, everything else is pretty straight forwards. It's a day or two of small jobs.

Jobs include:

- Connecting water line to fridge
- Hanging two tv mounts and hanging the TVs
- Installing a new jBox in the ceiling
- Hanging two white boards
- building wire trays
- Assembling chairs
- dump runs
- installing two track lights
- installing shelves

Must bring your own tools. Compensation will be bid and approved per job, not hourly.
