QR Code Link to This Post Greetings and thanks for choosing me for your repairs.

YES we are open all through the holiday season Mon-Sun for repairs and emergency roadside

As an 11th yr LIII Master Technician+ and a graduate of WyoTech I can offer the expertise and know how of a seasoned veteran dealership tech with out the hassles of pushy service writers, waiting rooms, and obscene repair bills and part price mark ups.

I have an extremely wide range of experience ranging from ALL domestic makes to higher end Italian import which is my forte (yes Ferrari Masterati Lambo Alfa Romeo

A vast majority of my work also stems from the German market which i also specialize in Porsche, Mercedes, Audi, VW, and BMW. Im also plenty comfortable with all Asian makes as well.

Feel free to give me a call regarding anything you'd like diagnosed or fixed. Im flexible with my estimates and in some cases I don't mind price matching so you can get a good deal while still having a formally trained and certified tech work on your vehicle. Also if your repair is going to be hard on your budget talk to me about it and i may be able to work with you on payment options.

I have a stellar client base of individuals, families, and even businesses whose vehicles I've kept on the road safe in tip top shape for years *

FEEL FREE TO ASK ME FOR REFERENCES OR ONE OF HUNDREDS OF SATISFIED TESTIMONIALS*

I would be happy to provide that info for you.
