QR Code Link to This Post Hi, I was looking after these ferrets for a friend of mine and she decided she no longer wanted to care for them, so she asked me to rehome them for her. They're very cute. They've been deglaned and spayed and neutered. There's a boy and a girl. The girls name is wonton and she is very playful, but does tend to play bite, so I wouldn't recommend her in a home with children. The boys name is Ramen. He's as sweet as can be, and very curious. They both get along very well with my two big dogs. I'd be willing to separate them, but it's definitely preferred that they stay together. I've just been letting let them roam around. I'm working on getting them litter trained but they aren't fully there yet. They don't have a cage or anything, just a small carrier. There is a rehoming fee of $200 if you take both or $150 each. This will go to there original owner to cover the costs of the spay/ neuter and Descenting. I can send pictures on request. Text me if you are serious about giving these guys a forever home! If someone doesn't take them before the 7th I'll have to give them to a shelter due to my landlord not allowing them. I really want to find them a good home and not just leave it to chance at a shelter! I can come to you if need be. My phone number is . Emails and Texts only please because I'm usually at work. Thank!
