QR Code Link to This Post Beautiful, fully furnished mental health/therapy office space available in January. The office space is fully set up for adult therapy, therapy with teens and also play therapy, with tons of books, toys, sandbox, dollhouse, etc. The office is located in the Troy Center at 2095 W. 6th Ave. Suite #212 and is conveniently located just off of I-36 and Wadsworth Blvd. (Hwy 287) Office space includes fully furnished private office area, and a common waiting area, with complimentary beverages for clients. The office space is available to be rented by the day of the week, and we have both a smaller office and a large office with a beautiful view of the mountains available. A renter would share the space with an established mental health practice and referrals are possible. Two conference rooms are also available to tenants in the building at no extra cost.

Small office per week day (example every Monday of the month) $125 for the month

Large office per week day (example every Monday of the month) $150 for the month

Call Pam for more details or to see the space.
