QR Code Link to This Post Hey my name is Jake I'm 25 years old and im looking for a solid job that I can start as soon tomorrow and that will pay me cash for the first couple days. I know it's alot to ask but I'm just behind on my bills and need some help. I'm a really hard worker who has experience in flooring, tile showers, back splashes, cabinet installing, framing,painting, and plenty more . I have just not had much luck finding a solid job. I've worked for 2 guys doing remodel work and both of them went MIA when it was pay day. I'm not looking for any hand outs or free money I just want to work for someone who has some work and will pay me what I'm worth if you could use a hard working young guy give me a call or a text or a email thanks.
