Hours are up to you. It's an incredibly easy job that demands very little. Just walk around for an hour, get paid and go home. It's very casual, can be fun, and you usually get a free lunch out of it as well. I always meet my clients in public areas such as malls or parks to ensure safety. I'm not seeking a date or any sort of romance. I'm just a very tall individual who loves friendships/interactions when there is a huge height difference. If you fit the bill for the job, or know someone who does, please don't hesitate to apply.

Email your height, description (or photo), and questions for more info. Anyone significantly below 4'8"/1.40m will receive a bonus. Anyone above the cutoff cannot be considered. (The cut-off is always based on current clients.) Thank.
