QR Code Link to This Post Very cheap affordable room for rent immediately! Only $275 a month period! I am a 31 year old white gay male. And I do recreational drugs occasionally, fairly often half the time. You must be ok with that. And don't snitch or tell my business about anything to anyone please, no drama!

I'm desperately needing a cool totally laid back roommate ASAP! I only reason I'm renting my room out is because I'm living with multiple chronic pains and other health issues and pending for disability. And damn conservative Indiana just took my food stamps. So I need some kind of income so I can eat something more and a little healthier and more sufficient than just food pantries please! And cash is better so I have some money to live off of for whatever things I need. Thanks! I'm running out of food quickly and just already went to all food pantries in my area here.

Let's please help each other asap! Please! Thanks!

My housing assistance here is through a big major private health organization based on my HIV status! It's not section 8. And guests don't sign in. And my neighbors all keep to themselves. The property management never comes into my building. So no worries about them finding out or kicking you or me out of my place here.

No wifi! Can't park here or I'll lose my housing assistance. I'm not putting anyone on the lease, can't. No cable! Unfurnished! No bed here. Street parking only or will have to find nearby parking elsewhere. No idea where! Sorry!

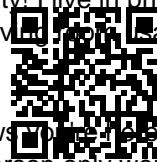

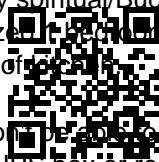

No cable but I will have a TV and DVD player in the living room asap on this Friday!

A church friend is bringing me a TV on Friday at the latest. And I'll buy a DVD player as soon as you pay me when you move in please. Thanks.

I'm very spiritual/Buddhist/Unity Christian! Very down to earth easy going on! I'm currently pending for awhile for disability! I live in privately/private owned / funded yet subsidized 1 bedroom apartment. I sleep on the floor in the living room. You get a queen bed room. I've shared living room during the night for what I can use of it.

You won't be able to receive mail here for parcels or I suppose my mail and my housing assistance. I don't know where to go. So you will have to have a mailbox or UPS box or receive mail elsewhere at a friend's or something. Room here is ideal for another disabled person, person only working part time, broke open minded students currently homeless but working periods, have limited disability income, etc.

We are allowed to smoke cigarette in my building and I do. But I can smoke outside if you need. You will be able to have and will ideally be ok with me having guests anytime want. Or at least half the time while you're at work if you work and or while you are school or wherever. All need communication and your work schedule please so we know when each other are home alone.

275 Cheap Room for Rent Available to Very Open Minded Roommate

Room is available for anyone gay or straight or bi but very open minded, gay/LGBT friendly person! You can be male or female, transgender, etc. Just don't tell anybody about you living here and cause me to lose my housing assistance and become homeless myself again please. Thanks. Again nobody including my housing case management or property management will know or can find out you're living here. Thanks again for understanding. Please don't give me any drama to deal with including trying to complain about me not having to pay anything towards my rent or utilities.

I don't have to pay anything here for my rent or utilities while pending for disability because I can't. Thank God my housing assistance isn't through section 8. Otherwise I couldn't rent my room out. I really desperately need someone to rent my room from me. So I can have some kind of income while pending for disability. Especially since damn conservative Indiana just took my food stamps pending whenever I can find a psychologist to sign off for disability. So stressful! Cash even without food stamps until January or December probably for me is better anyways. ªº. Of course you'd still be living here afterwards. Lol. ºŸª—. $275 a month period, no deposit. Available now please! Let me know if we can help each other out! First come, first serve! Thanks!
