Home LOCKSMITH Service can replace any types of locks, safes, doors, and gates, or we can install them.

These security companies will use the old bait and switch methods by letting a customer think a specific service will cost a certain amount while actually charging seven or eight times more. It is a truly reprehensible tactic, but that's becoming the standard in the industry today, which we strongly oppose. Rekeying locks is changing the lock, allowing a different key to make the lock open by professional LOCKSMITHS.

We believe there is no room for beginning prices, minimum prices, or an asterisk next to any service on a price list, with a fine print so minuscule and hidden, most customers will be none the wiser.
