QR Code Link to This Post Buy this gorgeous and original oil painting representing a "Man wearing jeans".

It was painted in 2008 by the Italian painter Emanuele Leone (you can see his signature on the painting) dead at 80 and loving "Americana " style. It's easy to see that his soul was so young and soft...

It's a really nice piece because the artist gives life to the forms and colors like you have never seen before. The painting with it's fine wood frame (and under glass) measures 24,40" (height) x 21,65" (width).

We are selling three further paintings of the same artist (see my other items)

Buyers can pick up the paintings from us (in Italy).

Contact us for further pictures, information and questions.

Thanks for looking!
