QR Code Link to This Post I have a Female Chihuahua up for adoption. She is pure-bred or at least thats what we were told altho she does not have papers! She is sweet and cuddly and loves her toys and rawhides! She is a demanding princess who needs to be the only one in the house! No other animals (altho not sure about cats) and no small children! I would say 10 or older. She loves to go on car rides, she is doggie door broke and will have an accident if not let out often enough if u dont have a doggie door. She only weighs about 3 lbs so she has a small bladder! She eats and drinks thru out the day so will need her bowls left down! She is kennel broke at night but loves to cuddle in bed as well! She sleeps under the blankets and on top of you! Lol! She is a barker but calms down when u get after her! She is afraid of other dogs (all dogs r bigger than her..lol) she thinks she can eat them alive but one look and she runs! She wants/needs to have all the love and attention u can offer! I dont want her stuck in a kennel all day! If u r interested and want pics please call and/or text
