Transfer fee: $500 which is necessary to split
Application fee: $100
Telecom fee: $100

I hopped onto a summer special lease, which is $55/month all utilities included (electricity, heat, water everything with no cap). This lease space would carry over to you. Currently, BaySide's leases are $629/month if you sign a brand new lease. For comparison, the dorms at Maine College of Arts are at minimum $1,112/month, according to their website.

There are 3 other roommates who are all female students/young professionals. They're clean and respectful.

If you'd like more information on Bayside Village Apartments, you can check out the website here: <http://baysidevillagemaine.com/>

I'm happy to set up tours of the place, either in person or virtually, but in case we can't match schedules, Bayside also offers tours of a model room. It won't be the exact room, but it'll be the same layout. My bedroom is one of the larger.
