QR Code Link to This Post Patrick is never happy with your work, it's his game to not pay you, he ends your 8 hr day after 6 hrs , doesn't appreciate good hard work , says $15 hr for finish cabinet work is a rip off after the work is done, says he has no money till the end of the month, hmmm why have me work then? It's the 5th, was i supposed to wait till after Christmas to get paid? Especially after he talks about my kid and what he wants for Christmas? Don't bother, he thinks CL jobbers are losers and deserve minimum wage, had to call cops on his yelling ass, cops agreed with me that for the work and how nice it was done that I had given him a great deal! And still got shorted $60, usually work with nice people on here! And you get to work around his filth, see pic of his mess mmmmm zoom in on the pic, the meat is dried and thats mold on the.
