QR Code Link to This Post I have one cream male toy poodle puppy left available. He comes with tail docked dew claws removed and utd on shots. I am excepting a deposit on this cute little fella now. He will be ready to go to his new home on New Years Day!! He will not go to just anyone, I require vet reference and proof of groomer upon making deposit. Must be able to pick up. This little guy will come pet home only. Please no scammers. And please do your research on the breed before contacting me. I won't settle for nothing but the best for this baby. Price has been reduced. Serious inquiries only please. Text or call me at for either questions and his price. Thank you have an amazing night. I will also do a trade on this little guy for a toy poodle female doesn't have to have papers. Thank.
