QR Code Link to This Post To the frenchie momma that needs to rehome your baby: your post was flagged & down before I could respond. I would love to discuss my family adopting you baby. My husband works from home & our kids are teens, that want a frenchie. Please respond to this post & I will give you my # so we can discuss this further. We are open to an "open" adoption if you want to see your baby or get updates. Looking forward to speaking with!
