QR Code Link to This Post I started a rescue at a difficult time, which is a big understatement. I have stage 4 Cancer and a whole mess of medical problems. I throw up off and on all day. I'm in terrible pain and feel drained of energy most days. I need help with my animals and home. I can't hope to recoup any money. I just need some pet stuff cleared out and help cleaning my yard. I have a 75 gal tank with tons of accessories....everything needed for water turtles, including extra filters, months of food, extra lights, all kinds of stuff. Not the dirtiest ever but if I mess with it I'm going to puke in it. 2 African Sideneck Turtles free to a good home. I might have a couple dog cages that can go for free for help with some minor cleanup. One of my foster dogs chewed a ton of stuff up in the yard and now he's got himself stuck under my shed barking his head off. Sigh. I feel like my life is in shambles. I also have a sweet black cat looking for a home. He is big and about 1 and not good with other cats. He is free. He likes his belly rubbed like a dog. He was rescued from the waste water management facility in Chesterfield. He had a bad eye infection that is now all better. I have 1 dog that needs obedience training (doofus under the shed) and one that needs a $700.-$1,000. surgery to help him breath better. I have a large metal birdcage that could use painting. I cleaned it and bought paint for it. I need dog, cat and parakeet food, cat litter and puppy pads. I'm having too many bad days. Please someone help and I will give you free pet stuff. I really need this tank gone. I need a kind heart to help me fix my life that is in disarray. The animals are being loved and cared for. But something has to.
