QR Code Link to This Post Louisville 6 ft aluminum folding step ladder. What you see is what you get. It's used and has some wear and tear but it'll get the job done if you're in need and don't want to spend $60-$70 on a new one. First reasonable offer takes it. I do drive all over South Florida for work so I may be able to meet up and save you a trip. Local pickup in Boynton is also welcome. PLEASE DO NOT WASTE MY TIME. If the ad is still up it's still available. Please text or leave a message if I miss your call and I'll get right back to you. Thanks and have a great day. 954-five-four-seven.
