QR Code Link to This Post Is it even possible for the American people to be honest with themselves for just one single moment since they have been fed so many lies for so many years in those Marxist Madrassas they call universities?

I will speak the truth even in this age when doing so has become so profound. The words diversity and inclusion have been used to devolve America. It is no longer who is the best candidate for the job it's what third worlder can do it for the least amount of money. Diversity is a trick used to subvert the American worker and undermine our culture while greasing the wheels of the greed machine. Transnational Corporations have sold you a lie and we have all been set up by this diversity and inclusion.
