These were handmade by a craftsman from Kentucky, named Roger Brown, that sold his items at the Sturgis Bike Rally many years ago. He specially made these for me over the years, I would buy 1 each year when I went to the Rally back in the early 1990's. I would wear them proudly as I attended Bike Rallies around the USA. They are in great shape as you can see by the pics

They are VERY HEAVY, full shank, Hand forged Damascus steel, with Deer Antler handles and some brass accents. You can see the many layers of steel in each blade. Each has a handmade custom sheath.

It is time I let someone else enjoy them.

The longest knife is 11 ½" total and blade is about 6", it is $100, next is 7 1/2" total with 3 1/2" blade, it is $65.

*NOTE * The Hatchet without the eagle head is sold!!!!

The 2 hatchets OR Tomahawks were specially made for me because while attending Sturgis and Daytona Bike Rallies I would often encounter places that would not allow me to carry one of the knives, Roger said he'd made these for me and to tell security it was NOT a weapon it was a tool, it worked, they let me carry these. The one with the EAGLE Head and Sheath is $70 and is REALLY HEAVY.

They are ALL certainly "ONE of a KIND" collector pieces from the 1990's BIKER scene

I live between Garner and Clayton near the Wake/Johnston County line kinda near the Walmart on Business 70 in Clayton
