QR Code Link to This Post I do not know much about this unit, but it has been in a family members basement in storage. It's not installed for use, and most likely has not been used in over 50 years. Cast Iron and woodgrain metal. Based on the shape of the bowl inside, I assume it's for coal, not sure if wood can be used. Unit is approximately 27" wide x 17" deep and 39" tall

Fireplace, coal, wood burning, firepit, furnace, potbelly stove, oven,
