Thanks for your time and consideration. This is a rare opportunity to join a young group of talented professional musicians as we move into our second year of consistent gigging. We are primarily a cover band, but would like to assimilate our new drummer into the writing process as we are setting a goal to have our debut EP out by late spring to promote during our summer run of outdoor shows, county fairs and street dances. We are not looking necessarily to hire a contract musician, but we want to find a new band member. This band is and always has been a team effort with a big emphasis on focused energy towards our common goal.

If you're selected you will have the opportunity to play Big shows. Street dances, county fairs and everything in between. We work with a professional sound production and promotion company to book and produce these shows to the best of our ability.

We will be holding auditions to sift through and properly vet our candidates. Even more important than talent to us is your ability to fit into the family with us. We are a very close group of friends but also are very open. If you're a good hang you got this. We want someone who's top priority is being a part of something bigger than themselves. We understand the sacrifice we all need to make to be a part of this team and we are willing to put in the time and energy into getting to a new level and breaking through the "local cover band" glass ceiling.

Please reply via Craigslist with a short bio and some samples of your playing. If you fit what we're looking for we will contact you with an audition date. Our final decision will be made the following week of auditions.

I know this sounds all boring and professional but at the end of the day we're about playing good tunes and having fun. We're very excited for the next chapter in our story and hope you can be a part of it! Thanks so!!
