We believe in doing the job right the first time and had the idea that there needs to be honest mechanics out there. Our knowledge and efficiency have shown through in every job we have completed. We take great pride in the work we do and believe in honesty and dedication. When speaking to customers, we will take the time to explain the whys and hows of their car problems, give them all their choices for the resolution of the problem and provide guidance on prioritization, based on both mechanical and financial need. We can accept all major credit cards, checks or cash. You will be billed on site after job is complete and pay for parts needed prior to purchase.
