QR Code Link to This Post Hello Everybody, my name is Duane. I have a professional ride service for Craigslist readers. I am available most days and nights. I have to take rides on a reservation basis due to other obligations.

I am reliable, discreet, personable, friendly, safety aware, honest, and open minded. All trips considered, especially with advanced (24 hour) notice. I drive a comfortable mid sized 2014 european sedan. It is insured (comp and collision), well maintained, clean, and climate controlled.

So if you need a ride, that is comfortable, and fairly priced then you can contact me at . By the way I gladly accept Credit Cards (VISA, AMEX, Master Card, and Discover) through the Square credit card processing unit.

Thank you for reading my post, and I look forward to assisting you in the near future. .
