QR Code Link to This Post We live in a rental that has it's own washer and dryer so we no longer need these.

They are both in great working order and amazing. I love them both and wish we could keep them.

The Washer was bought in March of 2016, but was only used for a year, it hasn't been used in 8 months, just sitting in our garage.
The Dryer we have had since August 2014, but hasn't been used in over a year and a half due to rentals having their own.

Dryer is electric and had the heating coil replaced a month before storage.

Washer is HE and does not having the middle bar, so you can fit TONS in it!

There is a little wear and tear on the outside of the washer and dryer from when we moved, but it is all cosmetic.

Would prefer to sell them as a set. But willing to hear offers.
Cash.
