My name is D., I am looking for someone looking to get into an apartment or a house. I have a 9 to 5 and support myself and I am always on time with my bills, I ask that you are somewhere close to that. I am a clean person, at least like to keep common areas clean, I am looking for a grown person, responsible and down to earth, of course we can have friends over but make sure your friends know where they are and be respectful, and at some point got to go lol, i'm just trying to say, be respectful, I LOVE COMMUNICATION, yeah that's how much i like communication, I don't like drama, again a grown up. Some overall, just a roommate down to earth, clean, respectful and mindful.

I don't have a place I am looking for someone who's looking for a house or apt too, I am not relying on anyone to pay for anything for me, just to get that out. I am paying half of everything i need to pay for. But I am looking to move as soon as possible.. so feel free to respond to this ad.

Sorry but not sorry about how forward I am with this ad, but I don't need any drama or disrespect, just a place i can call home and relax and be myself....

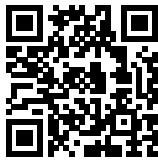

And be 420 friendly or/and socially drink lol and lgbt friendly, bi male here.
 Now, if that's you, give me a hollaw and if it's not, then deuces, thanks for reading.
