QR Code Link to This Post I have to have several surgeries over the next few years and have to move to Fairbanks before the end of December. I cannot take all my birds where I am going to live and cannot find a temporary long term home that will help me take care of them until I am able to return home again. I wanted to be their forever home but I have no choice but to sell them.

The prices will be affordable simply because I need new homes soon.

I can deliver to Fairbanks after the 20th.

I have two breeding pairs and one single of Lineolated Parakeets that needs a home fast. Prefer to sell all together. They are living together in a large cage now. (colors: Mauve, Cobalt and light yellow)

I also have 3 Sun Conures that needs a home TOGETHER also.

None of these birds are hand tame. Two of the Sun Conures were getting tame and would fly to sit on my shoulder or head and take food from my fingers. The 3rd is more aggressive but otherwise fine

Asking Rehoming Fee of $500 for the Sun Conures (one price for all 3) (Average selling price for 1 Sun Conure is anywhere from $400 and up to $600. So basically getting 3 for the price of one)

Asking Rehoming Fee of $500 for the Linnies. (one price for 5 birds. two breeding pairs and 1 young single)

Average selling price for 1 Lineolated Parakeet is from $250 up to $350. So basically getting 5 for the price of one)

Must provide your own cage
