You won't hear any of this in the mainstream media. All they know is destroy, distract and damage. That shows that they don't care about the people they claim to care about because if they did they would work with Trump and make the country better.

Trump accomplished all of this on his own withThe mainstream media should be thankful that President Donald Trump is in office. Look at all the attention they are getting. Look at all the stories and theories about him they are writing, tin foil hat conspiracy stories and all. They can't seem to get enough of him. They criticize him left and right and people wonder how much can he take and will he resign? Therein lies the rub sort of speak.

The other night on Sean Hannity's show Monica Crowley stated that Trump really enjoys and gets off on all this criticism because it is a major distraction by the media so he can get things done.

Notice the media never mentions all the things he's accomplished to make it look like he's not doing anything, but if you do some research like I have you can see what he has accomplished, more than any other president in the shortest period of time. Trump is a workaholic and only gets four hours of sleep a night.out the help of congress who are useless at this point. All the media cares about is how they can destroy him today. They have no solutions of their own. They are all deranged ideologues suffering from what is known as Trump derangement syndrome. No wonder the media's and congress' ratings are lower than Trump' s. His may be low, but theirs is lower.

In the areas of economics and national security, Trump is in the midst of healing this country's true woes. He's facing nearly insurmountable opposition from every corner of Washington and the media. But he's started something in motion that will ultimately prevail. He has turned the ship around. That's moral victory. That's making America great again. That's all that really, truly.
