QR Code Link to This Post I have 6 all black kittens who are now ready to find their forever home! They are 10 weeks old, completely reliant on hard food, received treatment for worms, but have NOT yet received their shots. All have been looked over by a vet and all deemed to be in great health with no problems. Momma cat is a household pet and Poppa cat is a neighbors household cat, they have been raised in doors. They are curious, full of energy and love to cuddle. Would make the PERFECT christmas gift! Small rehoming fee to assure they go to good homes. If interested, please TEXT!
