QR Code Link to This Post Sandra Love & the Reason is looking for a key player to complete the line-up of this new group. So far we are guitar, bass, drums and a powerful female vocalist. Looking for the right player to add depth to our songs and contribute to songwriting. Our stuff is mostly originals and a few covers done our own way. We're currently playing and booking gigs in the NOLA area. If interested please send some samples of your playing and tell us a bit about yourself. You can check out some of our music at the link below. Cheers!
