About Acurian:

Acurian is a company that provides people for medical research studies. We are currently looking for individuals with knee or hip joint pain to participate in our research studies. If you are interested in participating in a clinical research study, the Acurian team may request an investigation of your condition to ensure an informed consent process, depending on the study design. Participants receive study-related care from a qualified research team. The duration of the study is typically 12 weeks. Payments will be made for participation and travel costs for the study.
