Hello if you like to help a family with free gently used child clothing and have the sizes needed you can stick them clean clothes in a box and ship them to parents that need them or locate a family in your hometown.

someone just posted this:

My husband is currently laid off and I'm in need of clothes I have a daughter 7 son 5 son 3 daughter 1 and currently 6months pregnant with a girl if u can help please email me thank u have a bless day

How to do it: read the post and email that person directly to donate or post a need if you need free used child clothing. Recycle the clothes. Kids outgrow clothes so fast they are almost like new. Why buy new when you can do this all year long and pay your household bills on time.

The economy is still at a low for middle-income families struggling on low incomes. Plus the kids love pitching in and helping.
