QR Code Link to This Post I am an experienced masseur who is looking for a female to trade therapeutic massages with on a regular basis. I'd prefer someone with experience but am willing to teach (and learn!). I am most comfortable with deep tissue modality but can also do Swedish and light touch/sensual, and have been told I have strong, healing hands. I don't have a table quite yet but I am saving to purchase one, and in the meantime have a comfortable heated location or can come to you. Any level of modesty or lack thereof is fine, as is with/without oil.

I know it's tough to trust random strangers, especially with current news; I am fine with meeting publicly, trading drivers' licenses, bringing a friend or whatever works best for you to build trust.

If you are interested in trading, I'd love to hear from you! Oh - you must also be drug and disease free like I.
