I bought this beautiful Kohler cast iron double basin farm sink to remodel my kitchen but was too wide for my counters. It's 33" wide 8" deep in the basin and the apron in front is 8.75" deep. It was $1200 new and I bought it for $300 because it was light used. The color is bone which is a little warmer color of white. The guy I bought from said it was 30" wide and unfortunately I trusted him and didn't measure it. My mess up can be your gain. I'm asking $150.00 to move it fast so I can continue on with my project. If you priced these you know how expensive they are. Although it is gently used its in great shape with no chips! If you have any questions call Dave.
