QR Code Link to This Post This is a selection of stained glass windows made by Caitlin Waugh (caitlinwaugh.com), sold by the artist. Here is a link to pictures of the full series, with dimensions and writeups about the symbolism of each bird included:

The bird elements are sculpted in copper, are three dimensional, and are 'hollow', so the windows don't function as exterior windows. The frames are old, collected right after Katrina. They come with jack chain to hang them; the artist is happy to consult regarding installation upon request.

I'm moving soon and would love to find these beauties happy permanent homes.

Mourning Dove: $575

Pelican: $650

Barn Owl: $475

Osprey: $1150
