QR Code Link to This Post We are looking to find the perfect forever home for our dog. She is 2 year old Lab/Bulldog mix, up to date on shots, spayed and in need of a quiet home. She does well with other animals but can get territorial and she likes her space, so a home with older children or no children is ideal.

She is a medium sized dog, with the hips of a bulldog but body style of the lab in her so she does walk a little awkwardly. We have brought this up with her vet who had no concerns about it.

We are only asking for a small rehoming fee of $50 in hopes we can focus on finding her the right home that will be a better, happier fit for her.

Serious inquiries only.
